MADISON, Wis. (WMTV) -- A Wisconsin family is sharing their story after a troubling incident involving Snapchat. Now, they want to warn other parents after their 12 year-old daughter received nude photos from a complete stranger.

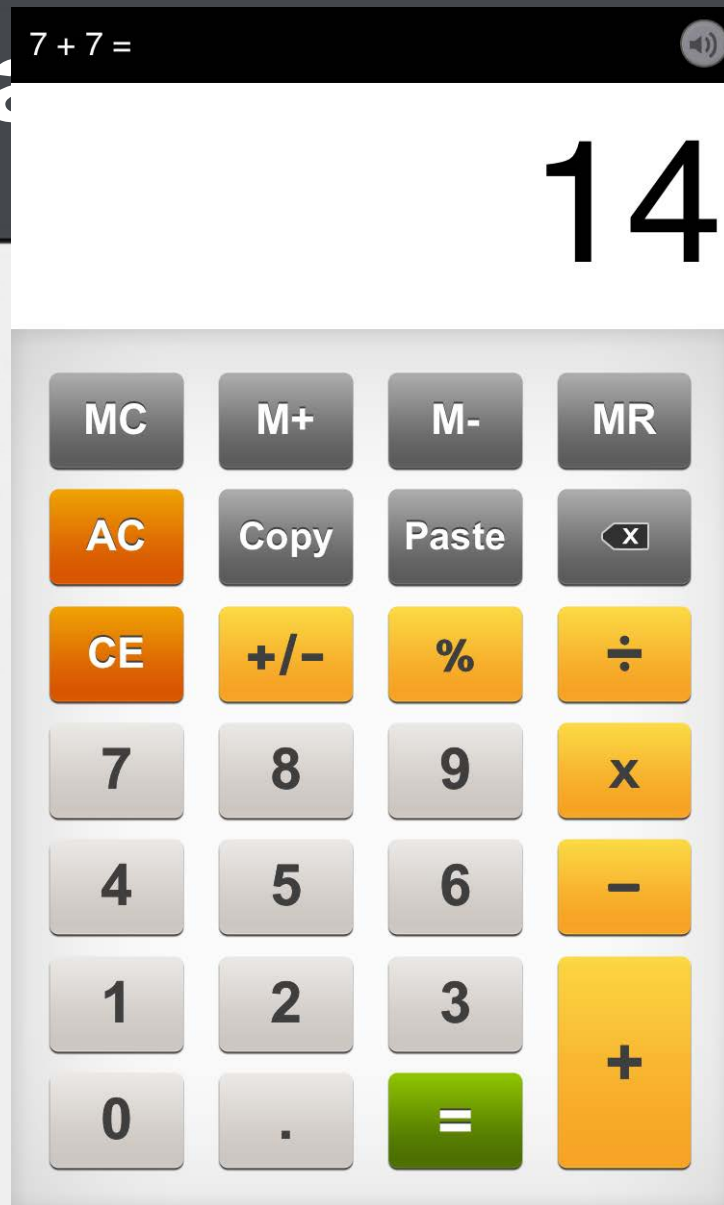

Snapchat is known for its fun filters, and quick photo and video sharing features. Once you open something in the app, it disappears in 1 to 10 seconds.

Last week, a 12 year-old Madison, Wisconsin girl received disturbing photos, leaving her upset and embarrassed, and her parents feeling helpless.

Ricketts calls for resignation amid allegations Sen. Kintner had explicit video on state computer

Gov. Pete Ricketts has urged state Sen. Bill Kintner of Papillion to resign if allegations are proven true that Kintner exchanged sexually explicit video of himself using his state computer.

A source familiar with the situation said Kintner told investigators about the video when he asked the Nebraska State Patrol for help with computer problems in July 2015.

Limit electronics?

- Common Suggestions

- Don't charge the phone or tablet in the bedroom
- Place computers in public parts of the house
- Technology Timeouts: Limit texting during meals, homework time, etc.

- Alternative: track “connected” time and compare to “unconnected” time

If things may be bad already:

- Talk to other affected parents, but don't be accusatory
- #1 Complaint from Administrators across the country: "Parents won't do their own dirty work."
- School admins must call the cops/HHS

If things may be bad already:

- mSpy ($70/mo or $199.99/yr)
 - Snapchat: "this is the nuclear option"
- WebWatcher ($99.95)
- K9 Web Protection (free)
- App locking, mirroring, syncing
- Block download capabilities
- Internet/Device/Service provider tools
- Turn off "incognito windows"
- Disable in-app browsers

Taking back the conversation

- Ask kids why they use SnapChat, Instagram, and Saraha,
- Kids use these apps because they are a parentless universe...use them!
- DC is more than monitoring—its about shaping values/lessons to life online
- Talk to them: your kids want to talk!
- > 50% of kids are “open to talking”

"When I said I wanted to see your work, I wasn't talking about Snapchatting me pics of you doing homework."
